Wm. E. Bell Cash Co.

50 DOZ. TOWELS

40 in. long by 22 in. wide at 10c. each. We have just received one case of this towel and will put them at 10c. each. You can't buy the same Towel in this town or in any town for less than 20c. This is what you save by

Buying for Cash.

We know people who have gotten mad with us for buying and selling for the cash. But we care nothing for this as we know the people want good Goods, and want them cheap. Give us a call if you wish to get new goods cheaper than you can buy the old shop-worn stuff. The assignee and agent of our Mr. Wm. E. Bell sold his old stuff for 25 and 35 per cent. on the dollar.

DON'T BUY OLD GOODS

When you can get New Fresh Goods 50 per cent. cheaper. We want your cash trade and don't you let anyone make you think that they can sell you cheaper than we can.

OUR SALES WILL SHOW THEY CAN'T.

WE HAVE ANOTHER PET,

OUR 75 Cts. 46 Inch BLACK HENRIETTA.

We have had customers to tell us that other merchants would tell them we could not sell a good article for this money, but they take our goods when they bring in samples to compare from 85c. to $1.

We ask for no dateing, but pay the spot cash down, and get a big discount, and even get the interest on the money we pay down, when other houses are compelled to charge you with this dateing. This is why we can sell you 46 inch Black Henrietta at 75c. per yard, when you can't buy it elsewhere for less than 85c. or $1. We mean to treat you right, all we ask is a call.

ONE MORE PET

And we are through. We have 20 pieces in stock and to receive of Plaid and Striped Outings at 6 1-4 cents. You can't buy the same class of goods for less than 10c.

Thanking the trade for past favors and with best wishes we remain,

Yours respectfully,

The Press and Banner

Published every Wednesday at $2 a year in advance.

Sixteen Pages.

Wednesday, Oct. 24, 1894.

Our Big Paper.

Besides four pages of the choicest and best matter that is printed in New York, we present a vast amount of "home news."

"The Weather Bulletin" is an exhaustive article on the season, the weather and the crops of the country, all of which the farmers will read.

Larry Gault's declaration of principles are readable.

The Railroad deal is noted.

The Politics of New York is a never ending theme, of which we never tire.

Senator Faulkner appeals to the Democrats for unity and singleness of purpose.

The story of the "Lover who killed his Bethroated," will interest the romantic.

The man "Passing Round" will attract your attention.

The account of the big train robbery is to be found in this paper.

The history of "Our Coat of Arms" presents facts not generally known.

Timmonsville town council comes forward for a share in the dispensary business.

"The Way they Treat Lynchers" in Ohio, presents a narrative that will be read.

"Our Cotton Mills" figures makes first class showing for South Carolina. We are ahead of all other Southern States in looms and spindles.

The "Annual Report of Charters Granted" affords more information to our credit.

"The Whiskey Question" is discussed from a Washington standpoint.

"The Institute for the Blind" furnishes a theme for an interesting talk.

"The School Statistics" shows that Abbeville stands high on the list.

"Dr. Pope's Pepper" seasons some reflections on the political situation.

The great number of large and attractive advertisements shows that there is yet life in the old land, and faith in printer's ink.

The Associate Reformed Synod.

The Synod of the Associate Reformed church will meet at Troy tomorrow.

Mr. Bernau goes as delegate from the Abbeville Church.

Judge Coltrane goes as delegate from the Alliance of the Reformed churches throughout the world, holding the Presbyterian system, and will from that large and influential body tender fraternal greetings to the younger sister church, which is noted no less for its zeal and tenacity in the faith than for its good work in all that promotes human welfare.

The Synod is the highest representative body of that faith, and is an important meeting, which takes place annually, at such time and place as the body may order.

The Press and Banner joins the members of the Associate Reformed church at this place, and all the people of this city, in extending cordial and fraternal greetings, accompanied with the request that the Synod consider an invitation to meet with us at Abbeville in 1895, where the individual members will find hospitable homes. In the hope that we may catch something of inspiration from coming in contact with the educated and Christian representatives of that church, they are invited to come.

The Circus.

The advance agents of the Walter L. Main's great show were in town last week, putting up bills and making arrangements for the coming of the circus. The advertising agent, Mr. Chas. W. Rife, assures us that the show is a regular Sunday school show, in which nothing is said or done that could offend the modesty or refined feelings of any one. No vulgarity or profanity is allowed by the employees of the Company. Mr. Rife also assures us that the show is a most excellent one—entertaining and amusing from first to last.

Extra trains will be run on the railroads for fifty miles in every direction, so as to give everybody an opportunity to come. The large grounds near Dr. Marshall's, on Magazine Hill, have been secured, which will give ample accommodations for the great crowd that is expected.

Mr. Rife says the parade is two miles in length, and presents rare attractions. This is free to everybody, and to which all are cordially invited.

In former years there were objectionable features in circuses, but in deference to the moral and religious element of every community the objectionable cast in the performance has been eliminated.

TWO MORTGAGES.

One for $160,000.00—One for $10—The Pledged Property.

Mr. James H. Simmons is now busy copying into the Clerk's books a mortgage on the Southern Railway Company for $100,000.00 in favor of Central Trust Company of New York, trustee, secured by all the property belonging to the Company. The mortgage is between 40,000 and 50,000 words—97 pages of a printed book.

MORTGAGE NO. 2.

The second mortgage of which we make note is to secure a note of ten dollars. The items mortgaged are enumerated and named as follows:

One Turkey red table damask, two lady's hats, three dresses, three skirts, 1 pr. gloves, 1 corset, 2 gaiter vests, 1 waist, 2 handkerchiefs, 1 yd. elastic, 1 pattern, 2 collars, 1 pr. towels, 1 pr. hose, 1 coffee mill.

"NO."

Tickets Against Irby's Convention.

If you want tickets against Irby's Convention call at the Press and Banner office, where you can get information as to where to get them.

Colored Man Opens a Store.

Gus. Richey, a worthy young colored man, has opened a stock of groceries in the store room recently occupied by Mrs. Harriet Adams as a restaurant. The store has a new front, new shelves, and a new sky light. The store is a nice one and an attractive stock of goods is exhibited. If he will apply business methods, and if the colored people act on the suggestion of George Washington Murray, the keeper of this new store ought to get rich.

To be Given Away.

Do you want a Hat free of charge? If so, guess the following conundrum: "Why is Cohen's New Clothing Store like fertile valleys?" This is open to every man, woman and child in Abbeville county. Send your guesses in a sealed envelope with your address on the outside and answer on the inside. Guesses will be received till Circus, Oct. 31.

Cohen's Liberal Offer.

Every purchaser of $5.00 worth of goods from "Cohen's New Clothing and Hat Store" will be given a free ticket to the great Circus, coming here on Wednesday, Oct. 31st.
